INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders of May Davis Group, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of May Davis Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, changes in subordinated borrowings and cash flows for the year then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of May Davis Group, Inc. at December 31, 2003 and the results of its' operations and cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2, the Company's ability to continue in the normal course of business is dependent upon the success of future operations. The Company has recurring losses, negative cash flows from operations, limited operating revenues and an accumulated deficit, which raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 2. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I, II and III is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS December 31, 2003

NOTE 1- ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

May Davis Group, Inc. (the "Company"), is a securities broker/dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and the National Association of Securities Dealer, Inc. ("NASD").

The Company operates as a "general securities introducing broker" executing trades primarily for retail and institutional customers. The Company does not carry customer accounts or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities. Customers of the Company are introduced to carrying broker/dealers ("clearance agents") on a fully disclosed basis.

As a result of terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001, the Company experienced a severe disruption of business, as well as significant property loss. During 2003, the Company received an insurance settlement in the amount of $91,000 as a recovery for business interruption and loss of assets. The attacks caused the temporary relocation of the Company's employees from its offices located in the World Trade Center. The Company relocated to 14 Wall Street during 2003.

NOTE 2- GOING CONCERN CONSIDERATION

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company has recurring losses, negative cash flows from operations, limited operating revenues and an accumulated deficit. The Company reported losses from operations of $328,512 for December 31, 2003. The Company reported net cash used in operating activities of $441,033 for December 31, 2003. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. During 2004, management of the Company intends to increase equity by contributing subordinated debt to capital and to increase revenues. There can be no assurance that management's plans, as described above, will be realized. If the Company is unable to generate sufficient revenues or raise sufficient additional capital, there could be a material adverse effect on the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS December 31, 2003

NOTE 3- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Depreciation

The cost of furniture and equipment is depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the related assets of 5 to 7 years on a straight line basis for book and on an accelerated basis for tax purposes.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company is engaged in various investment and brokerage activities in which counterparties primarily include broker-dealers, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on the creditworthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Comprehensive Income

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 130, "Reporting Comprehensive Income" ("SFAS No. 130"). SFAS No. 130 requires an entity to report comprehensive income and its components and increases financial reporting disclosures. This standard has no impact on the Company's financial position, cash flows or results of operations since no elements of the Company's comprehensive income exist other than the income or loss from operations.

Revenue Recognition

Commission revenue and related expense are recorded on a settlement date basis. Revenues and expenses would not be materially affected if reported on a trade date basis.

Investment banking fees that arise from the Company's participation in securities selling groups and are recorded on the settlement date.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS December 31, 2003

NOTE 4- RECEIVABLE FROM BROKER-DEALERS AND CLEARING ORGANIZATIONS

Amounts receivable from the Company's clearing organization at December 31, 2003, consist of the following:

	Receivable
Deposit with clearing brokers	$ 125,000
Receivable from clearing brokers	16,192
•	$ 141,192

NOTE 5- INCOME TAXES

Provisions for federal, state and local income taxes are calculated on reported financial statement pretax income based on current tax law. Do to the Company's loss for the year ended December 31, 2003 no provision for income taxes was accrued.

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes", which recognizes both the current and deferred tax consequences of all transactions recognized in the financial statements, calculated based on the provisions of enacted tax laws, including the tax rates in effect for current and future years. Valuation allowances are established for deferred tax assets when it is more likely than not, a probability level of more than 50%, that they will not be realized. At December 31, 2003, the Company had net operating loss carry forwards of approximately $700,000 which expire in the years 2019 through 2023. These losses may be used to offset future taxable income.

At December 31, 2003, the Company had recorded a deferred tax asset of $340,000 resulting primarily from net operating loss carry forwards. A valuation allowance of $340,000 has been recorded against the deferred tax asset in accordance with the realization criteria established by SFAS 109.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS December 31, 2003

NOTE 6- SUBORDINATED BORROWINGS

At December 31, 2003, the Company had borrowings of $574,269 which were unconditionally subordinated to all claims of general creditors pursuant to written agreements. Two agreements in the amount of $29,250 each, were effective on June 27, 1995, and matured on June 30, 2002, at which time they were extended by the Company and the lendors but were not approved by the NASD. A third agreement in the amount of $290,000 effective on February 22, 2000, matured on March 30, 2003. This loan was also extended but not approved by the NASD.

During 2003, the Company lost an arbitration and was ordered to pay an award in the amount of $364,768 which put the Company under its net capital requirement. The Company was forced to cease operations for a period of time. The claimant accepted partial payment of the award, forgave a portion and allowed the remaining $225,769 to be turned into a subordinated loan which matures on October 1, 2006. This loan bears interest at 9% per annum.

The two $29,250 loans had an original interest rate of 10% per annum and the $290,000 loan had an original interest rate of 8% per annum. Management has affirmed that any interest due on these subordinated loans has either been paid or forgiven by the lender and no interest is payable on these loans at December 31, 2003. The subordinated borrowings are available in computing net capital under the Securities and Exchange Commission's uniform net capital rule. To the extent that such borrowings are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, they may not be repaid. Since the payment of these loans would result in the Company being out of compliance with the minimum net capital requirements they have not been repaid.

NOTE 7- SECURED DEMAND NOTES

At December 31, 2003, the Company had a collateralized demand note of $35,000 pursuant to a written agreement which matured on June 30, 2003. This loan was extended but not approved by the NASD. The loan bears interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The borrowings are available in computing net capital under the Securities and Exchange Commission's uniform net capital rule.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS December 31, 2003

NOTE 8- COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Leases

The Company utilizes office space in New York City on a month to month basis from a company owned by the stockholders. The Company has an operating lease for office space in Baltimore which expires April 30, 2008. Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2003 was $187,752. Future minimum payments required as of December 31, 2003 over the term of the current lease are as follows:

	Minimum
December 31.	lease payments
2004	32,513
2005	33,488
2006	34,493
2007	35,528
2008	10,959
	$ 146,981

Litigation

The Company settled an arbitration during 2003 wherein the Company agreed to pay $20,000 to the complaintant. At December 31, 2003, the Company still owed $10,000 which was subsequently paid in February 2004.

NOTE 9- NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 and equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2003, the Company had net capital of $143,277, which was $43,277 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000.

NOTE 9- NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS (continued)

As a result of the Marchesi arbitration award the Company's net capital fell below its required minimum net capital of $100,000 and the Company ceased doing business as a broker dealer for the period July 10, 2003 through October 7, 2003. The net capital violation was cured when Marchesi subordinated $225,769 of the arbitration award until October 1, 2006.

NOTE 10- OFF BALANCE SHEET RISK

Pursuant to a clearance agreement, the Company introduces all of its securities transactions to its sole clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis. Therefore, all of the customers' money balances and long and short security positions are carried on the books of the clearing broker. Under certain conditions as defined in the clearance agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the clearing broker for losses, if any, which the clearing broker may sustain from carrying securities transactions introduced by the Company. In accordance with industry practice and regulatory requirements, the Company and the clearing broker monitor collateral on the securities transactions introduced by the Company.

NOTE 11- SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On February 27, 2004 the Company was ordered by the NASD to cease doing business as a broker dealer because its debt to equity ratio was in excess of 70% for over 90 days. This rule violation was cured on April 20, 2004 when the NASD approved the contribution of a subordinated loan to additional paid-in capital by the president of the Company.

As a result of net capital deficiencies the Company will seek to have its net capital requirement reduced to $5,000.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS' SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

DECEMBER 31, 2003

KEMPISTY & COMPANY

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS, P.C.

15 MAIDEN LANE - SUITE 1003 - NEW YORK, NY 10038 - TEL (212) 406-7272 - FAX (212) 513-1930

The Stockholders of May Davis Group, Inc. New York, New York

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of May Davis Group, Inc. (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2003, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-3(a) (11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

- 1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
- 2. Recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13.
- 3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraphs. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

May Davis Group, Inc.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters in internal control that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report recognizes that it is not practicable in an organization the size of May Davis Group, Inc. to achieve all the divisions of duties and cross-checks generally included in an internal control and that, alternatively, greater reliance must be placed on surveillance by management.

In addition, our review indicated that May Davis Group, Inc. was in compliance with conditions of exemption from rule 15c3-3 pursuant to Paragraph k(2)(ii) as of December 31, 2003 and no facts came to our attention to indicate that such conditions had not been complied with during the year.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, NASD Regulation, and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
